COURT COMMISSIONER CALENDARS AND CHANGES

Further explanations: note, the numbering matches the footnotes on the calendar (over).

1. Ex parte hours have been expanded. Note that Monday morning ex parte is until 11:00 a.m., but for the rest of the week is only until 10:30 a.m. Attorneys, or their messengers, will have priority from 9:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m or 11:00. Pro se litigants will have priority from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.
2. Matters for extended hearings on all extended hearings calendars, including that for interpreters, is placed on the calendar only at the direction of the Court. Calendar notes may not be used. If a request for an extended hearing is sought, application should be made through Confirmations. Ordinarily, the extended hearing calendar is for matters which, in the Court's view, will take greater than 30 minutes to prepare and/or hear, for settlement conferences, or where an interpreter is needed. Extended hearings in civil cases must be heard only in Dept. A or D.
3. Cases on the State initiated paternity calendar are noted by the State or as set by the Court. Other paternity related matters are to be noted on the Family Law motions calendar. Parties and counsel shall be present for the State Paternity calendar no less than ½ hour prior to the calendar's beginning.
4. Child support modifications are modifications or adjustments of final orders of child support, not modification of temporary orders. They do not include cases where there are also parenting plan issues being litigated. They may be noted on this calendar by calendar note.
5. Civil motions heard in Dept. A are those listed on page one (over). They may be noted on this calendar. Note that guardianship and probate motions are now heard in Dept. D, not in Dept. A.
6. Clerk's dismissal are heard on the 1st, 3rd, and 5th Wednesdays and are calendared only by the Clerk by order to Show Cause. State Paternity telephone hearings are heard on 2nd and 4th Wednesdays and are noted only by the State.
7. Guardianship and Probate hearings are now heard only in Dept. D Thursday 9:00 a.m., Friday 9:30 a.m. Matters may be noted or show caused to this calendar. Ex parte guardianship and probate matters will still be heard on the ex parte calendar in Dept. A.
8. This calendar is heard in Dept. A by the Dept. D commissioner.
9. This calendar is heard in Dept. D by the Dept. A commissioner.
10. Interpreter cases are placed on this calendar to afford efficiency in the use of interpreters. Matters are placed on this calendar by the Court and may not be noted on this calendar. Application may be made through Confirmations or ex parte or when a matter is continued from another calendar.

Interpreters are arranged by the attorney for the party needing the interpreter. If the party is pro-se, the interpreter is arranged by Court Administrative staff. Payment for the interpreter is usually made by the party needing the interpreter [except ASL interpreters who are paid at Court expense]. However, a party may apply to the Court by in forma pauperis for payment at Court expense.
